Motion by Trustee Mercer, seconded by Trustee Scott-Hayes, to adopt Com. No. BT1. as follows:

The following resolution is presented by Trustee Field:

WHEREAS, The State of California requires that every community college district with voter-approved bond funds create a Citizens’ Oversight Committee to review the bond program; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District was the first district in California to pass a bond under this requirement; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District firmly believes in the role of citizens in maintaining full accountability and credibility for the District’s Bond Program; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District has found outstanding community leaders who have given many hours of time and expertise to their role as members of the District Citizens’ Oversight Committee (DCOC); and

WHEREAS, Due to state regulations, DCOC members must rotate off after four years of service; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District is immensely appreciative of the time, expertise, and public commitment of our outgoing DCOC members; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby expresses its appreciation to:

Shana Won, Los Angeles City College – September 2005 – September 2009
Gary Cook, Labor Representative – November 2005 – November 2009

for their years of service on the DCOC and hopes they will remain actively involved in supporting our students and colleges in future years.
Mr. Jim Lynch and Mr. Alan Ehrlich expressed their appreciation to the Board members and District administrators for their support of the DCOC’s efforts to oversee the use of bond funds for Proposition A, AA and Measure J projects.

Interim Chancellor Wieder expressed her appreciation to the outgoing members of the DCOC for their efforts.

Hearing on Bid Protest Regarding Owner-Controlled Insurance Program (OCIP) Broker Award

Ms. Goulet indicated that Aon Risk Insurance Services West, Inc. is protesting the bid that was awarded to Kaercher Campbell & Associates to provide insurance brokerage services in the procurement of an OCIP for Bond Program construction and related activities. The protest was denied and Aon is now appealing this ruling.

The following individuals addressed the Board regarding Aon’s appeal of the ruling denying their protest and Kaercher Campbell/Merriwether & Williams’ response to Aon’s appeal of the ruling:

   Mr. James Holobaugh, Senior Vice President and Regional Director, Aon Risk Insurance Services West, Inc.; Mr. Dennis Nash, Attorney for Aon; Mr. Ron Rakich, Risk Management Consultant for the Bond Program; Mr. Roger Heyman, Attorney at Law, Heyman Densmore LLP; Mr. Kevin Jeter, Associate General Counsel; Mr. Andrew Kugler, Mayer Brown LLP; Ms. Penni Campbell, Chief Executive Officer, Kaercher Campbell & Associates; and Ms. Ingrid Merriwether, President/CEO, Merriwether & Williams.

There was discussion regarding the process that resulted in the selection of Kaercher Campbell & Associates and the protest of the bid by Aon.

President Field inquired as to the consequences of deferring action on Com. No. CH13. Authorize Broker for Owner-Controlled Insurance Program.

Ms. Goulet responded that the Board could take a motion to defer Com. No. CH13. With respect to the issue of timing, the broker would have to be awarded the contract in order to go out to market for the insurance, which is a 60 to 90-day process.
