Com. No. BT2. Independence Day of South Korea

Trustee Park made the following amendment:

The following resolution is presented by Trustees Park, Santiago, and Pearlman:

WHEREAS, The 15th of August, or the Independence Day of South Korea (Gwangbokjeol), commemorates Victory over Japan Day (V-J Day), or the surrender of Japan to Allied forces at the finale of World War II, which officially liberated Korea from decades-long colonization; and

WHEREAS, The Independence Day of South Korea (Gwangbokjeol) also honors the formation of the South Korean Republic and the beginnings of the development of Korean historical identity; and
WHEREAS, The 15th of August is an official national holiday within the country of South Korea, where the day is celebrated with festivals and parades dedicated to the freedom fighters of the country; and

WHEREAS, The Koreatown District in the city of Los Angeles also celebrates the Independence Day of South Korea (Gwangbokjeol) with various festivities, such as the annual hoisting of the national flag of South Korea, cultural arts performances and the triennial ringing of the Korean Bell of Friendship--located at the Koreatown Bell Pavilion; and

WHEREAS, In the vicinity of the Los Angeles City College services area, Koreatown is located within the Los Angeles Community College District boundaries; and

WHEREAS, Los Angeles is the home to the largest population of ethnic Koreans around the globe, outside of Asia; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby declares the 15th of August as “Korean Independence Celebration Day” and encourages residents of the Los Angeles Community College District to join in the festivities and cultural celebration of this day, as well as honor the growing contributions of Koreans to the United States and numerous other nations around the world.

Motion by Trustee Park, seconded by Trustee Santiago, to adopt Com. No. BT2. as amended.

Com. No. BT4. Resolution in Support of Democratic Budget Proposal

Motion by Trustee Santiago, seconded by Trustee Candaele, to adopt Com. No. BT4. as follows:

The following resolution is presented by Trustee Santiago:

WHEREAS, California is again facing a huge deficit—a $17.9 billion general fund shortfall; the ongoing gap in revenues and spending continues to place an undue burden on educators and threatens to compromise the quality of public education in the state; and

WHEREAS, The budget proposal introduced by Assembly Speaker John A. Pérez and Senate President Pro Tempore Darrell Steinberg creates and saves California jobs and provides access to hundreds of thousands of community college students while closing the budget deficit; and

WHEREAS, The Democratic budget proposal protects public school funding, providing $52 billion in Proposition 98 funding to K-12 schools and community colleges; and

WHEREAS, The Democratic budget proposal provides for $186 million in additional funding to California’s Community Colleges; and

WHEREAS, The approximately $17 million in additional funding for the Los Angeles Community College District will mean access for approximately 7,000 more students and increased support services to provide for greater student success; and

WHEREAS, The Democratic budget proposal will ensure that $11.2 billion in maintenance factor funding would be repaid to local school districts and community colleges; this protects tens of thousands of jobs for teachers, aides, and counselors and access for community college students—a step which is good for the local community and the local business community; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby supports the Democratic budget proposal and encourages the State Legislature and the Governor to adopt this budget without delay.

Trustee Field expressed her concern regarding the language in the resolved that says “. . . supports the Democratic budget proposal . . .”
There was discussion regarding this issue and the possibility of postponing action for 30 minutes in order to work on revised language.

Trustee Scott-Hayes requested that the resolution be tabled until the regularly scheduled Board meeting of August 25, 2010.
