Com. No. BT4. Resolution – Reappointment of Personnel Commissioner

Motion by Trustee Field, seconded by Trustee Scott-Hayes, to adopt Com. No. BT4. as follows:

WHEREAS, The State Chancellor’s procedures for nomination of Personnel Commissioners provide that, "in the instance of reappointment, when a well qualified Personnel Commissioner is available for reappointment and the Governing Board wishes to recommend reappointment, the open recruitment process need not be initiated. Instead, a public announcement of the intention to recommend reappointment of the Personnel Commissioner should be made at a meeting of the Governing Board"; and WHEREAS, Ms. Young Havens is uniquely qualified for service as a Personnel Commissioner of the Los Angeles Community College District, bringing a rich background of experience from working in all aspects of the Personnel Commission at the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) over the past thirteen years; Ms. Young Havens administers and oversees the Classification and Compensation Branch of the Personnel Commission; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Young Havens has served the Los Angeles Community College District as a Personnel Commissioner since February 12, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Young Havens has been instrumental in implementing changes and improvement in Personnel Commission operations; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Young Havens has gained the respect and support of District administration, employees, union leadership and staff in carrying out the role of Personnel Commissioner; now therefore, be it RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees, Los Angeles Community College District does hereby announce its decision to recommend the reappointment of Ms. Ann Young Havens to serve as Personnel Commissioner.

Com. No. BT5. Resolution – Adopt a Fixed Hourly Rate Compensation Approach for the College Project Managers, Program Manager, and Master Service Agreements for Bond Program Activities

Motion by Trustee Santiago, seconded by Trustee Field, to adopt Com. No. BT5. as follows:

The following resolution is presented by Trustees Mercer and Santiago:

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District has contracted for the management of Propositions A, AA, and Measure J projects ("Bond Management"); and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District, sitting as Committee of the Whole on October 6, 2010, discussed with staff the approach for renewing the College Project Manager ("CPM") contracts and the two compensation approaches utilized on the Program for the CPM firms, for the Program Manager and for the Master Service Agreements ("MSAs") for professional services relating to Bond Management; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees desires stand-alone CPM contracts for the nine Colleges, and that the existing MSAs be utilized for district wide and on-call support services only; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees was briefed by staff on the advantages and disadvantages of the two compensation approaches; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees noted a number of advantages, including reduced program cost, increased efficiency in administration, and a more standardized method for the Fixed Hourly Rate compensation approach; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees seeks a consistent rate structure for all position classifications and firms as well as hourly rate amounts that are prescribed by contract and validated by a reputable third-party source as fair and appropriate for the greater Los Angeles area for Bond Management; now therefore, be it
RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby endorses adoption of the Fixed Hourly Rate approach for the CPM firms, the Program Manager and the MSAs; and be it further

RESOLVED, That staff is directed to present a report one year after implementation of the Fixed Hourly Rate compensation model examining the nature of the cost savings and to make recommendations as to necessary downward or upward adjustments to reflect average compensation levels in the architecture and construction industry.

Student Trustee Advisory Vote: Abstain (Tong) ADOPTED: 7 Ayes

Motion by Trustee Santiago, seconded by Trustee Scott-Hayes, to adopt Com. No. BT6. as follows:

The following resolution is presented by Trustees Mercer and Santiago:

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles Community College District competed and subsequently awarded ten Master Service Agreements to provide for certain management services on the Bond Program; and

WHEREAS, Those agreements significantly increased the number of professional service firms participating on the Bond Program and enabled the District to obtain needed services more swiftly from a broader pool; and

WHEREAS, Those agreements consisted of two components: (i) College Project Management (CPM) firm services for Measure J projects from the nine firms currently assigned to the nine District Colleges, and (ii) district wide and on-call support services from any of the more than 100 prime, sub-consultant, small, emerging and local firms contracted under the ten Master Service Agreements; and

WHEREAS, The CPM firms were previously responsible for the staffing of the CPM component of the Master Service Agreements; and

WHEREAS, More than 100 total firms contracted under the ten Master Service Agreements compete for on-call assignments, and

WHEREAS, Specialized services have been awarded based on qualifications and other suitable considerations; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees desires to establish a policy to require an open and competitive selection process for the district wide and on-call portion of the Master Service Agreements when possible; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby declares that an open and competitive process will be used for new assignments of work under the Master Service Agreements, except where there is a written rationale that articulates an appropriate basis, as determined by the Chancellor or his designee, for assignment without such a process.

There was discussion regarding the competitive selection process for on-call assignments.

Motion by Trustee Santiago, seconded by Trustee Scott-Hayes, to amend Com. No. BT6. as follows:

WHEREAS, The Board of Trustees desires to establish a policy to require an open and competitive selection process for the district wide and on-call portion of the Master Service Agreements when possible except where there is a written rationale for an appropriate basis; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Los Angeles Community College District hereby declares that an open and competitive process will be used for new assignments of work under the Master Service Agreements, except where there is a written rationale that articulates an appropriate basis, as determined by the Chancellor or his designee, for assignment without such a process.
