CASE Conference for Community College Advancement

Using Race and Gender in the Award of Scholarships: What it means for California Community College Foundations

10/2/2013

PRESENTED BY:

Frances Rogers
What is Advancement?

CASE – Council for the Advancement and Support of Education definition:

“Advancement is a strategic, integrated method of managing relationships to increase understanding and support among an educational institution’s key constituents, including alumni and friends, government policy makers, the media, members of the community and philanthropic entities of all types.”

- NCCCF / CASE MOU – 2012
- CASE expanded its reach within the Community College system
- NCCCF expanded its contact base nationally
What does Advancement look like at ELAC?

1. External Affairs - President / Foundation
   - Articulate the needs to foster support
   - Engage in civic and corporate events
   - Establish relationships with partners
   - Appeal for financial support for the college
   - Advocate for legislative support on behalf of college
What does Advancement look like at ELAC?

2. Research and Planning - OIE
   - Establish data driven decision making processes
   - Program Review, Strategic Planning, Accreditation
   - Internal and External Scan, SWOT
   - Provide Data for Program Evaluation
What does Advancement look like at ELAC?

3. Resource Development - RIDO/ELAC Foundation
   - Competitive Grants to support programs
   - Voter approved Bonds for Buildings
   - Fundraising Events to support programming
   - Alumni outreach to develop scholarship funds
   - Gift Planning to create endowments
   - Social Enterprise to support operational costs
Alignment is Integral to Advancement

- Needs to be a core function of the institution
- Needs to be included in the accreditation process
- Needs to be involved in program review and viability
- Needs to include the Foundation board in strategic planning
Sources of Support since 2000

- Bond Campaigns for buildings
- Grants for programs support
- Social Enterprise for infrastructure
- Events for general operations
- Planned Giving for endowments
- Alumni for scholarships
