THE MISSION OF THE LOS ANGELES COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

1200. MISSION. “Changing Lives in a Changing Los Angeles”

The mission of the Los Angeles Community College District is to provide our students an excellent education that prepares them to transfer to four-year institutions, successfully complete workforce development programs designed to meet local and statewide needs, and pursue opportunities for lifelong learning and civic engagement.

CORE VALUES. This District mission is informed by the following core values that will guide us in reaching our goals.

Access & Opportunity: We are committed to maximizing educational opportunity and access to everyone who has the desire to learn, and we actively engage all students, including those from communities that have traditionally been underserved by higher education or who require special accommodation or support.

Excellence & Innovation: In all of our services and institutional activities, we strive to create a culture of excellence and continuous improvement through the use of innovative pedagogy and technologies that challenge our students, faculty, staff and administrators to meet the highest educational and professional standards.

Student Learning & Success: All of our institutional efforts and resources are dedicated to one central purpose—the support of all students as they work toward the achievement of their academic and career goals.

Free Inquiry: We value the vigorous, critical and free exchange of ideas and opinions, and we work actively to create communities of mutual respect and shared concern that support and sustain open debate and constructive, democratic discourse.

The Power of Diversity: As a group of nine urban and suburban colleges situated in the midst of different communities, we draw upon and embrace diversity as an integral aspect of our civic and institutional identity and as a powerful element in the education and development of every individual.

Equity. We are committed to eliminating achievement gaps by identifying and removing barriers to student success.

Community Connection: Our colleges must be rooted in the communities they serve, and we are determined to build and maintain strong, durable, and responsive collaborations with our educational partners across Los Angeles, and with business, labor, and other organizations that contribute to the fabric of our larger community.

Public Accountability and Transparency. We are accountable to the public for all aspects of our mission, and we owe the students we serve, the people of Los Angeles, and the State of California regular and timely assessments of all of our efforts through shared governance processes that are open and transparent.

CODE OF ETHICS

1204.10 Preamble. The Los Angeles Community College District is dedicated to education, lifelong learning, and developing the citizens in our community. We expect all employees to behave in an honest, fair and appropriate manner to enable us to meet our mission.

Adopted 02-08-06

1204.11 Ethical Behavior. By March 1, 2006 each College Academic Senate shall have adopted a Code of Ethics by which all faculty members at their college are required to abide. In the event a college has not adopted a Code of Ethics then the District Academic Senate Code of Ethics (1204.12) shall apply.

Adopted 02-08-06

1204.12 The Los Angeles Community College District Academic Senate has adopted the following Policy on Faculty Ethics (Based on the 1987 American Association of University Professors Statement on Professional Ethics) by which all members of the District Academic Senate are required to abide.

ACADEMIC RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

a. Community college faculty members, guided by a deep conviction of the worth and dignity of the advancement of knowledge, recognize the special responsibilities placed upon them. Their primary responsibility to their subjects is to seek and to state the truth as they see it. To this end faculty members devote their energies to developing and improving their scholarly competence. They accept the obligation to exercise critical self-discipline and judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge. They practice intellectual honesty. Although faculty members may follow subsidiary interests, these interests must never seriously hamper or compromise their freedom of inquiry.

b. As teachers, faculty members encourage the free pursuit of learning in their students. They hold before them the best scholarly standards of their discipline. Faculty members demonstrate respect for the student as an individual, and adhere to their proper role as intellectual guides and counselors. Faculty members make every reasonable effort to foster honest academic conduct and to assure that evaluation of students reflects their true merit. They respect the confidential nature of the relationship between faculty member and student. They avoid any exploitation of students for private advantage and acknowledge significant assistance from them. They protect the academic freedom of students.

c. As colleagues, faculty members have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Faculty members do not discriminate against or harass colleagues. They respect and defend the free inquiry of associates. In the exchange of criticism and ideas faculty members show due respect for the opinions of others. Faculty members acknowledge their academic debts and strive to be objective in their professional judgment of colleagues. Faculty members accept their share of faculty responsibilities for the governance of their institution.

Adopted 02-08-06

d. As members of an academic institution, faculty members seek above all to be effective teachers and scholars. Although faculty members observe the stated regulations of their institutions, provided the regulations do not contravene academic freedom, they maintain their right to criticize and seek revision. Faculty members give due regard to their paramount responsibilities within their institution in determining the amount and character of work done outside it. When considering the interruption or termination of their service, faculty members recognize the effect of their decisions upon the program of the institution and give due notice of their intentions.

e. As members of their community, faculty members have the rights and obligations of all citizens. Faculty members measure the urgency of these obligations in the light of their responsibilities to their subject areas, to their students, to their profession, and to their institutions. When they speak or act as private persons they avoid creating the impression that they speak or act for their colleges or universities. As citizens engaged in a profession that depends upon freedom for its health and integrity, faculty members have a particular obligation to promote conditions of free inquiry and to further public understanding of academic freedom.

1204.13 District employees who are not covered by the faculty Codes of Ethics shall adhere to the following ethical standards:

Adopted 02-08-06

a. Exercise due diligence in the ethical performance of his or her duties and model ethically responsible behavior at all times.

b. Facilitate a climate of trust and mutual support through actions that demonstrate respect for reason, freedom of expression, and the right to dissent. Avoid knowingly making false or malicious statements about other employees or students.

c. Use care and integrity in sharing information, guard privacy rights of all individuals, and avoid disclosing information about colleagues or students obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law.

d. Avoid entering into or continuing relationships with other employees or students that create or sustain conflicts of interest, such as those that may be viewed as harassment, unequal power relationships, or those of a sexual nature.

e. Avoid entering into or continuing relationships that create or sustain conflicts of interest as they relate to contractual obligations for and with the district and its colleges and which may lead to personal gain.

Adopted 02-08-06

1204.14 Further Considerations. This policy provides general guidelines and expectations for all Los Angeles Community College District employees other than faculty. It does not supersede more specific District or Board Rules, regulations, or state or federal laws affecting ethical considerations. Employees are also guided by ethical standards established by professional organizations in their fields.
