I. POLICY

It is the policy of the District to compensate employees based on policies and pay scales established by the Board of Trustees.

II. DEFINITIONS

- Capacity Utilization (CAP) is the percentage of a pay scale a particular employee is paid. CAP is normally 100 percent for full time salaried and all hourly employees, but varies for department chairs, PACE instructors, summer instructors, and part time salaried employees.
- Jobs are general classifications that group positions together for purposes of compensation, Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) requirements, Equal Employment Opportunity Coding, etc.
- An Hourly pay rate is a payment for one hour of services paid based upon submission of a time report documenting the service.
- Pay Scale is the specific set of information that determines a preconfigured monthly, semi-monthly, or hourly rate of pay. It consists of Pay Scale Area, Pay Scale Group and Level, Pay Scale Type, and Capacity Utilization Level.
- Pay Scale Area means a set of jobs that share the same salary schedule and usually receive pay adjustments (COLA) as a group.
- Pay Scale Group is a specific set of monthly, semi-monthly, or hourly rates of pay sub-divided into levels (steps). A Pay Scale Group is often applicable to a single job code, but may be shared by several job codes.
- Pay Scale Type is the SAP system terminology for a collection of Pay Scale Groups that share common characteristics with respect to the number of steps and rules for step advancement. In the legacy system, this concept was referred to as a "Salary Schedule."
- Rate of Pay is the amount of money an employee receives per hour, per month, or per semi-month for a particular assignment to a particular position. Rate of pay is subdivided into wage type components for each assignment. If a person has multiple concurrent assignments to multiple positions, the individual rates of pay for each assignment are added together to determine gross pay for a particular paycheck.
- A Salaried pay rate is a set monthly or semi-monthly periodic payment for specified services paid based upon assignment to a salaried position.

- Wage Types are the basic building block components used to assign payments and deductions.

III. REQUIREMENTS

- A. Each job classification, position, and employee in the District is assigned to a pay scale. In the legacy system, this concept was referred to as assignment to the salary schedule. In SAP, the overall concepts for establishing a position, determining a position’s pay scale, and assigning a person to a pay scale, is similar in concept. It is primarily the terminology and technology that differs. Table H-500A, Pay Scales Concepts, identifies the Human Resource Guide for each employee service.

B. Decision to Hire

1. When a location decides to hire, the following questions must be answered “yes” before an assignment can be made:
  - Is there an appropriate position vacancy in the desired job classification available?
  - Is there budget for the position? (Note: If there is no money available to fund the position, the process cannot continue until adequate funding is identified.)
2. If the answer to either of the above questions is “No”, then the following questions must be asked.
  - Is there an appropriate district job classification for the work?
  - Is there an appropriate pay scale available?
3. If the answer to any questions is “no” in 2 above, a new job classification and/or pay scale must be established before a person can be assigned to the position.
4. Figure H500A, Pay Scale Creation Workflow, illustrates the overall process.

* If the job is in Classified Service, the Personnel Commission certifies the job classification in terms of duties to be formed. When appropriate, a new a classification is established.

C. Creation of New Job Classification

1. The creation of a new Job Classification results in a new Pay Scale Area, Pay Scale Type, and Pay Scale Group. Consequently, additional processing time, in terms of months, must be completed before the position may be offered to a person. It is, therefore, recommended that locations consult Human Resources Division as soon as a need for a new Job Classification is identified.
2. Creation of new jobs is processed according to employee service as shown in Table H-500B, Job Creation Responsibility, below.

TABLE H-500B JOB CREATION RESPONSIBILITY
SERVICE	JOB	RESPONSIBILITY AREA
Academic	All	Human Resources
Classified	All	Personnel Commission
Unclassified	All	Human Resources

3. Assignment of Individual to Pay Scale: Upon assignment of an individual to a specific job, determination of the pay scale occurs automatically based on pre-determined policies and programming procedures. Note: Professional Experts and Community Representatives are an exception to the automatic assignment to pay scale process. See HR Guide R-310, Professional Experts and HR Guide R-340, Community Representatives, for details.

D. Pay Scale Components

In SAP, Pay Scales consist of Pay Scale Type, Pay Scale Area, and Pay Scale Group. Pay Scale Type and Pay Scale Area determine Pay Scale Group. The function of these components is shown below.

a. Pay Scale Type

- a. In SAP, Pay Scale Types determine the number of steps for a particular job and the rules for step advancement for that job. Each Pay Scale Type consists of the following components:
  - Job
  - Pay Scale Group applicable for each Job
  - Pay Scale applicable to the individual employee

PAY SCALE TYPE COMPONENTS ***

* The five-level pay scale type is used illustrative purposes only. Other Pay Scale Types may have more or less levels as determined through collective bargaining and LACCD Board Rules.

Pay Scale (Individual)

- b. An individual Pay Scale establishes an employee's basic pay only. Any pay differentials and/or other special payments that an employee may be eligible for are paid as a separate Wage Type. See H-540, Special Differential Wage Types, and H-550, Career Years Wage Types, for details.
- c. In addition to determining pay for each Job Type, Pay Scale Types identify the kind of salary schedule involved. Table H-500C, Salary Schedule Types, below, summarizes the salary schedules by job classification group.

TABLE H-500C
SALARY SCHEDULE TYPES

SALARY SCHEDULES	PAY SCALE TYPES	DEFINITION	JOB CLASSIFICATIONS

c. Pay Scale Group

- a. In SAP, Pay Scale Group is the term used to describe basic salary schedules used in the District. In the Legacy System, this concept is related to Classification and Basis.
- b. Five Step Master Salary Schedule (Pay Scale Type 01): Two methods are used to assign job classifications to the Five Step Master Salary Schedule: Sequential Coding and Single Coding. When different job codes share the same pay schedule, they are assigned to the same Pay Scale Group. When a single job classification is in a single pay scale, the Job Code and Pay Scale Group are the same. Figure H-500C, Pay Scale Group Coding Conventions, below, identifies pay scale type, salary schedule and illustrates the sequential and single job coding.

- c. Faculty Salary Schedules (Pay Scale Type 02, 03, 04): Faculty Pay Scale Groups are designated by letters and identify full-time, adjunct, and extra assignments. This Table H-500F, Faculty Salary Schedule Pay Scale Group Codes, below, lists these codes.

- d. Flat Rate Schedule (Pay Scale Types 06, 09, 10, TM): Flat rate schedules are used in Unclassified Service and for designated job classifications in Academic and Classified Service.

4. Pay Scale Responsibility Areas

- a. The specific dollar amounts and steps allocated to each job are determined for represented employees through the collective bargaining process and for unrepresented employees, by the Board of Trustees.
- b. Human Resources, District Office, in consultation with appropriate collective bargaining representatives, determine the policy and procedures for pay scale types and also manage changes to the pay scale types in the SAP database.
- c. Specific pay scale schedules for each job are maintained at the District Office according to employee service as shown in Table H-500G, Pay Scale (Schedule) Responsibility Area.

5. Pay Rate Grouping: Pay rates are grouped using one of the following three pay methods to pay employees:

- Hourly: Employees who do not have set hours and who are paid by the hours reported as being worked for each day. Attendance, not absences are reported, i.e., using positive time reporting. The Hourly Pay Rate grouping includes temporary employees, part-time employees, and employees in any service, including Adjunct Faculty without a regular work schedule.
- Salaried Semi-Monthly: Employees who work a regular work and who are paid on the semi-monthly pay schedule. Pay is based on the FTE assignment, not hours worked and absent. Pay remains the same each month regardless of the number of calendar working days in each month. Absences, not attendance, are reported, i.e., negative time reporting. The Salaried Semi-Monthly grouping includes represented regular Classified employees.
- Salaried Monthly: Same as semi-monthly expect that the employee is on the monthly pay schedule. The Salaried Monthly grouping includes Faculty, Academic Service Administrators, Classified Managers, Confidential Classified employees and Adjunct Faculty who have a regular work schedule.

a. The pay rate groupings are shown in Table H-500H, Pay Rate Groups, below.

TABLE H-500H PAY RATE GROUPINGS
GROUPING	GROUPING CODE	SALARIED / HOURLY	DEFINITION	EXAMPLES
Hourly	01	Hourly	Rate to be paid per hour	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Temporary</li> <li>• Part-Time</li> <li>• Employees in any service without a regular work schedule</li> <li>• Classroom Adjunct Faculty without a regular work schedule</li> <li>• Retiree Returning to Work</li> </ul>

b. Figure W-500, Pay Rate Conversion, below, shows how to compare pay rates with pay rates in other pay rate groupings.

Monthly Rate = 2 x Semi-Monthly Rate = 173.33 x Hourly Rate <sup>1</sup>
<sup>2</sup> Pay rates are compared by converting semi-monthly or hourly pay rates to the monthly rate.

c. Table W-500I, Pay Rate Conversion Examples, illustrates how the actual conversion is done.

TABLE -500I PAY RATE CONVERSION EXAMPLES
JOB TITLE	PAY RATE GROUPING	RATE OF PAY	FACTOR <sup>1</sup>	MONTHLY EQUIVALENT
Accounting Manager	03 (Monthly)	8129.50/Per Month	1 <sup>2</sup>	8,129.50
Financial Aid Manager	02 (Semi-Monthly)	3993.88/Per Semi-Month	2 <sup>2</sup>	7,987.76
<sup>3</sup> Identifies the number of working hours in an average month in the SAP System.
