

OFFICE OF THE CHANCELLOR

April 2, 2020

Dear LACCD Students,

I hope this message finds you and your families well. I wanted to provide you with an important update about Commencement 2020.

Graduating Students – your achievements are very important to us and we want you to have the best commencement possible. Under the current health and safety conditions, we all know that a traditional commencement with large crowds is not possible, but a celebration is in the works because you deserve the recognition!

While no specific plans for a virtual, or rescheduled, commencement have been finalized, your special celebration has our full attention and we will be seeking student input. We will provide more information as quickly as possible, but know that one way or another, Your Commencement is On!

Congrats to our Class of 2020!

Salud, fuerza y corazón. Health, strength and heart.
